

Title of the course:	English
Course ID:	VE-NPT001
Level of education:	pre-intermediate - advanced	Academic semester:	Optional
Professor's name:	Tassy Sándor	Academic title:
Hours per semester:	26	Credits:	4
Exam:	No	Pre-requisites:

Aims of the course

It is an English language practice course, therefore, the English Grammar, (different, simpler, effective approach than at any other schools) Pronunciation, Composition, Presentation are the main fields of explanations and practices. This course is effective from pre-intermediate to advanced learners of English.

For total beginners it is not recommended due to the short time of the course.

The professor's more than 50 years of resultful teaching method supplies students with such a knowledge that is hard to gain otherwise.

Topics to deal with

Any that comes up as being interested

Practical work

Regular "homework" a written practice that is corrected mutually and everybody can learn from all the others' mistakes, that makes it much more effective than it is in common courses, moreover finds what to practice individually. Students get links for downloading the course material that cannot be obtained otherwise. Everything is projected so all the students can see everything at the same time.

Requirements and assessment

- to have the ability to listen to the teacher 😊...
- to be able to get off your phone 😊...
- being able to ask questions if anything is of interest or not understood totally.

Readings

The books used for practicing are the best for all times:

L.G. Alexander: Practice and Progress,

L.G. Alexander: Developing Skills

Tassy Sándor: The Secret of the 5 Sentences, a new approach that regards all the languages a human can speak on the Earth. Presented in English.

We wish you to have a great, fruitful time at our University in Hungary